

VERBS

Verbs are words that describe actions.

Verb Tenses BrainPop

PRESENT TENSE VERBS

Present Tense Verbs show action that happens NOW.

Most present tense singular verbs end with -s or -es.

Most present tense plural verbs do not end with -s or -es

Example:

The king enters the hall.

His subjects bow.

We live in Alabama.

PRESENT TENSE VERBS

Present Tense Verbs show action that happens NOW.

Most present tense singular verbs end with -s or -es.

Most present tense plural verbs do not end with -s or -es

Examples:

You plan

He eats

They marry

It flies

She hopes

We smile

I give

PAST TENSE VERBS

Verbs in the past tense show action that has already happened.

Most verbs in the past tense end in -ed

Example:

Long ago, a fairy enchanted the princess.

Last year, the club performed a musical.

I sang along with them for practice.

PAST TENSE VERBS

Verbs in the past tense show action that has already happened.

Most verbs in the past tense end in -ed

Example:

You planned

He ate

They married

It flew

She hoped

We smiled

I gave

FUTURE TENSE VERBS

Verbs in the Future tense show action that will happen.

Add will, (or shall) to most verbs to show the future tense.

Example:

She will sleep now.

I will be a pilot someday.

John will fly to the beach this summer.

FUTURE TENSE VERBS

Verbs in the Future tense show action that will happen.

Add will, (or shall) to most verbs to show the future tense.

Example:

You will plan

He will eat

They will be married

She will hope

We will smile

I will give

DIFFERENT VERB TENSES

Tense	Meaning	Example
present	now	I run .
past	before now	I ran .
future	after now	I will run .
present perfect	begun in the past and recently finished or still going on	I have run .
past perfect	finished in the past before some other past action	I had run .
future perfect	finished in the future before some other future action	I will have run .